ITALIAN CUISINES IN TORONTO: THEIR HISTORY AND FUTURE

Lecture by Peter W. Aykroyd

Monday, December 04, 2017 at 6:30pm

On the occasion of the the 50th Anniversary celebrations of the Accademia Italiana della Cucina - Toronto Delegation, Italian cuisine expert Peter Aykroyd illustrates what the foundations and status of Italian food and wine were in 1967 Toronto both through archival and recent photography and colourful anecdotes from his own Italian culinary adventures.

Istituto Italiano di
Cultura - 496 Huron
St., Toronto | Free
admission

For Peter, Italy's regional cuisines represent a life-long passion. For over forty years he has been involved in a myriad of cooking courses and has conducted culinary research in Italy and in North America. In May 2005, together with three Italian-Canadian friends, Peter founded Amanti della cucina Ltd.

The Accademia Italiana della Cucina is an Italian cultural association devoted in promoting Italian cuisine in Italy and abroad.
